SUMMER SEARCH VOTED ONE OF THE “BEST NONPROFITS TO WORK FOR” SECOND YEAR IN A ROW

Ranked among Top 50 organizations by The NonProfit Times

San Francisco — April 1, 2014 — For the second consecutive year, Summer Search ranks as one the “Best Nonprofits to Work For”, announced the NonProfit Times today. Summer Search first made the list in 2013.

Every year, The NonProfit Times, the nonprofit sector’s leading business publication—and in partnership with the Best Companies Group—releases a report of the 50 best 501 (c) 3 nonprofit organizations to work for in the United States. The nationwide survey and awards program was created in 2010 to identify, recognize and honor the best places of employment in the nonprofit industry, benefiting the industry's economy, its workforce and businesses.

“Summer Search is a great place to work not only because of what we do, but because of the culture of connection and collaboration that our employees have collectively created,” said Amy Saxton, Summer Search CEO. “Making Summer Search a great place to work is a top priority every year, so to be recognized again as one of the ‘Best Nonprofits to Work For’ reflects our commitment to continually improving the lives of our employees and maintaining a workplace dedicated to fostering trust, gratitude, camaraderie and the pursuit of excellence.”

Published as a special report in the April 2014 print and online editions of The NonProfit Times, the “Best Nonprofits to Work For in 2014” (link to article pending) were ranked according to survey results on a range of topics such as employer organizational policies and practices, work environment, training and development, pay and benefits, and overall employee satisfaction and engagement.

Founded in 1987, The NonProfit Times is published 17 times per year and is the premier business publication for nonprofit management, reaching over 38,000 executive decision makers with monthly special reports and specialized information affecting the nonprofit industry.
